

PROCLAMATION

BY THE

Governor of the State of Texas

REPRODUCED FROM THE HOLDINGS OF THE
TEXAS STATE ARCHIVES

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

I disapprove, and am vetoing and filing with the Secretary of State Senate Bill 270 revising the Code of Criminal Procedure. Information which has come to light during the last few days, reveals that the version of Senate Bill 270 received in my office is not the same version which was passed by either house of the Fifty-eighth Legislature. While I do not know the cause of this discrepancy, to sign such a bill into law would be in derogation of the Constitutional requirement that all provision of laws must be approved by a majority of both houses of the Legislature prior to becoming effective.

Senate Bill 270 was received in the Governor's Office less than ten (10) days prior to the adjournment of the Regular Session of the Fifty-eighth Legislature, and in accordance with Article IV Section 14 of the Constitution of Texas, the Bill, together with this Proclamation, is filed with the Secretary of State.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused the seal of State to be affixed hereto at Austin this 5th day of June, 1963.

John Connally
Governor of Texas
